9. The Parties have met and conferred regarding documents maintained in electronic format. Plaintiff has identified the issue of the Debtors' servers, some of which have been coded into a searchable format while others which would require additional time and expenditures. Defendant has identified no potential issue. The parties will cooperate to facilitate the exchange of relevant evidence stored in any electronic format.

R. Civ. P. 26 (a)(2); and (ii) all rebuttal or responsive expert reports and other disclosures required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 (a)(2) shall be made no later than thirty (30) days thereafter.

13. Mediation

If the parties desire and agree to mediate their dispute(s) at any time during pendency of this adversary proceeding, they shall jointly file a stipulation (the "Stipulation") with the Court.

14. Motions

FACTS

14. The Debtors are a consolidated enterprise of several companies aggregated through a series of acquisitions, which operate the following businesses: (a) outsourced revenue cycle management for physician practices, (b) physician practice management, (c) group purchasing services for physician practices, and (d) an independent practice association business, which is organized and directed by physicians in private practice to negotiate contracts with insurance companies on their behalf while such physicians remain independent and which also provides other services to such physician practices.

15. Parmjit Parmar a/k/a Paul Parmar ("Parmar"), was the former Chief Executive Officer of the Debtor, Constellation Healthcare Technologies, Inc. ("CHT"), Sotirios Zaharis, a/k/a Sam Zaharis ("Zaharis"), was the former Chief Financial Officer of CHT, and Ravi Chivukula ("Chivukula") was the Controller and Secretary of CHT from approximately 2013 to 2017. Parmar, Zaharis and Chivukula served on the board of directors of CHT. Parmar, Zaharis and Chivukula, in combination with one another and with others, operating through various Debtors, moved money and established off-balance sheet accounts to redirect monies of the Debtors for their own personal use. The Debtor, and the aforementioned associates, utilized a Wells Fargo IOLA account overseen by the law firm of Robinson, Brog, Leinwand, Greene, Genovese & Gluck, P.C. ("Robinson Brog"). Upon information and belief, Robinson Brog also represented Parmar, Zaharis and Chivukula personally in their business, litigation and private affairs.

16. On or about 2018, Parmar, Zaharis and Chivukula were indicted by the United States Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey, for creating fictitious business entities, balance sheets, doctored bank statements, fabricating customers as well as generating fake income streams, and sham acquisitions in an effort to divert monies from the Debtors. As alleged, Parmar, Zaharis and Chivukula diverted funds to enrich themselves, their friends, family and associates.

17. In or about 2015 and earlier, Defendant Walia was the majority owner, managing member, and Chief Executive Officer of Portech Corporation, prior to its acquisition by the Debtors.

18. On or about March 2015, the Debtor, Physicians Practice Plus, LLC, as represented by Robinson Brog, acquired Portech Corporation from Defendant Walia. Pursuant to the asset purchase agreement made and entered into as of March, 2015 (“Asset Purchase Agreement”), the sum of $12,800,000 was paid, including the right to subsequent payments and earn-outs over the course of the following years (the “Portech Acquisition”).

19. The Portech Acquisition was orchestrated through the network of entities arranged by Parmar such that funds could be diverted into off-balance sheet accounts. The off-balance sheet accounts allowed funds to be transferred (a) to entities controlled by Parmar and his confederates, or (b) to commingle funds such that monies could be disbursed in a manner which best allowed Parmar to obfuscate his dealings and continue to maintain an illusion that the Debtors were solvent.

20. On or about May 1, 2017, the Debtor Orion Healthcorp, Inc. and Defendant Walia, entered into an employment agreement wherein Defendant Walia would act as the President and CEO of the Debtor, Orion Healthcorp, Inc. Walia would be paid an annual salary of $100,000 as paid in accordance with the Debtor’s regular payroll practices.

21. On or about May 1, 2017, the Debtor Orion Healthcorp, Inc. and Defendant Niknim Management, Inc., as represented by Defendant Walia, as the sole managing member, entered into a consulting agreement wherein Niknim would be paid a monthly fee by the Debtors for the prior month’s work as a consultant.

(A) The Transfers:

22. During the one (1) year period prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, the Debtors transferred property to or for the benefit of Defendants in an amount not less than $1,520,000.00, as identified in particular on Exhibit “A” which is incorporated herein by reference (the “One-Year Transfer”). Defendant Walia was an officer of the Debtors at all pertinent times therein. During the two (2) year period prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, the Debtors transferred property to or for the benefit of Defendants in an amount not less than $2,500,000.00, as identified in particular on Exhibit “A”

which is incorporated herein by reference (the “Two-Year Transfer”)(collectively, the One-Year and Two-Year Transfer are referenced as “the Transfers”).

(B) Amounts Allegedly Owed To Defendant And Defendant’s Proofs Of Claim:

23. On or about July 5, 2018, Defendant Walia filed a claim in the amount of $61,590.00, which the claims agent designated as claim no. 10067 (the “Filed Claim”), as attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

24. Defendant Walia alleges in the Filed Claim that the Debtors failed to indemnify Walia for employee-related services.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(For Avoidance and Recovery of Intentionally Fraudulent Transfers Under 11 U.S.C. § 548; NY Debt & Cred L § 276, et al., Against Defendants)

25. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in each preceding paragraph of the Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

26. The Defendant received the Transfers from the Debtors which were through various concealed means including the off-balance sheet bank accounts as identified in particular on Exhibit “A”.

27. The Transfers were made by the Debtors with actual intent to hinder or delay or defraud their creditors insofar as the Transfers were orchestrated through a scheme to divert and redirect monies of the Debtors for the personal benefit of Parmar, his friends and associates, or in a manner to obfuscate the misuse of the Debtor.

28. The Transfers were made to or for the benefit of Defendants.

29. Accordingly, the Transfers are avoidable, and should be avoided, as intentionally fraudulent transfers pursuant to § 548(a)(1)(A) and NY Debt & Cred L § 276, and may be recovered from Defendant pursuant to § 548 and the NY Debt & Cred L. Plaintiff is entitled to an order and judgment under 11 U.S.C. § 544 that the Transfers be avoided.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(To Avoid Constructively Fraudulent Transfers Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(b) and 548(a)(1)(B) and NY Debt & Cred L
§§ 273-275, et seq., Against Defendants)

30. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation in the above paragraphs, as though fully set forth herein.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon asserts that at all relevant times, the Debtors: (a) were insolvent, or became insolvent as a result of the Transfers; (b) were engaged in or was about to engage in a business or a transaction for which their remaining assets were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction; or (c) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that they would incur, debts beyond their ability to pay as they became due; or (d) made such Transfers to or for the benefit of an insider, under an employment contract and not in the ordinary course of business.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon asserts, that Defendant did not give the Debtors, and the Debtors did not otherwise receive, reasonably equivalent value for obligations incurred for the Transfers. As a result, the Debtors paid and received in value nothing from Defendant and or less than reasonably equivalent value.

33. At all relevant times, the Transfers were avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B) and NY Debt & Cred L. Plaintiff is entitled to an order and judgment that the Transfers are avoided.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Avoidance of Preferential Transfers Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 547(b) Against Defendants)

34. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation in the above paragraphs, as though fully set forth herein.

35. During one-year prior to the petition, Defendant was a creditor and an insider of one or more of the Debtors.

36. The One-Year Transfer identified on Exhibit "A" hereto was made to or for the benefit of Defendant.

37. The Transfer was made for or on account of an antecedent debt or debts owed by one or more of the Debtors before such Preferential Transfers were made.

38. The Transfer was made during the One-Year Period in which Defendant Walia was an insider of the Debtor.

39. The Transfer was made while the Debtors were insolvent.

40. The Transfer enabled Defendant to receive more than Defendant would have received if (i) the Debtors' chapter 11 cases were instead cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) the transfers and/or payments had not been made; and (iii) Defendant received payment on account of the debt paid by the Preferential Transfers to the extent provided by the Bankruptcy Code.

41. The Transfer constitutes an avoidable preference pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 547(b).

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(For Recovery of Property -- 11 U.S.C. § 544(b), §550 and NY Debt & Cred L against Defendants)

42. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in each preceding paragraph of the Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

43. As the Defendants are the initial, immediate or mediate transferees of the Transfer, Plaintiff may recover for the benefit of the estate the property transferred or the value of such property from (a) the initial transferee of such transfer or the entity for whose benefit such transfer was made or (b) any immediate or mediate transferee of such initial transferee pursuant to pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550(a)

44. As alleged above, Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the Transfers under 11 U.S.C. §§ 542, 547 and 548. As Defendants are the initial, immediate or mediate transferee of the Transfers, Plaintiff is entitled to receive for the Estate the proceeds or value of the Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550 of the Bankruptcy Code and NY Debt & Cred L.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Objection to Claims against Defendant Walia)

45. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in each preceding paragraph of the Complaint as though set forth fully herein.

46. After a thorough review of the Debtors' Books and Records and Claim No. 10067, the Plaintiff has determined that Claim No. 10067 does not comply with the Bankruptcy Rules, is without evidentiary support, and is contradicted by the Debtors' books and records.

47. As alleged above, each Preferential or Fraudulent Transfer constitutes an avoidable transfer pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547 and/or 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, which is recoverable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 550.

48. As a result of the above, Plaintiff moves to strike the Claim or alternatively, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 502(d), Claim No. 10067 must be disallowed unless and until Defendant pays to the Plaintiff an amount equal to each preferential or fraudulent Transfer that is avoided including pre- and post-judgment interest on the avoided amount.

49. As a result of the above, Plaintiff moves to strike the Claim.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

a. For a determination that the Transfers are an avoidable fraudulent transfer under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, and 548, of the Bankruptcy Code and Section 273-276 of NY Debt & Cred L, et seq, as applicable, and that the Plaintiff is entitled to recover the Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550 of the Bankruptcy Code;

b. For a determination that the One-Year Transfers are avoidable transfers under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 and 547, as applicable, and that the Plaintiff is entitled to recover the One-Year Transfers under 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 & 551 of the Bankruptcy Code;

c. On its Claim for Objection to the Filed Claim, that the Defendant recover nothing by way of the Filed Claim;

d. Awarding to the Plaintiff the costs of suit incurred herein, including pre- and post-judgment interest; and

e. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
